

Welcome to the Planet:
It's All about...

Announcements

Workday here at church this Saturday at 8:30am. This would be a great time to work alongside an older member of our church as we help make our grounds and building look better. Some kind of breakfast is being served. Bring your own clothes and any outdoor tools you may have. It looks like we will definitely be mulching around our flower beds.

Senior High, I need to know if it is okay to change your small group time from Sunday to Monday. Tonya is not going to be able to do it on Sunday this week due to Mother's day and other obligations, like her birthday. Please let em know if this would be okay. Time would still be at 5:30pm and you can meet at the church or my house (Pastor Jeremy's).

We are putting together a CREW directory. Going around is some papers that ask for all the standard stuff. Jeff Hazelwood will be taking your picture starting tonight after CREW and before CREW for the next 2 weeks only. The pictures and information will be put together and a directory will be ready for you by June (hopefully).

If you need a Purpose Driven Life book please see Pastor Jeremy and pick one up tonight. There are about 5 copies down here in the CREW room.

VBS workers are needed. If you have any questions please see Mrs. Peggy. An all VBS workers meeting is coming up soon.

Games

Andrea Moorehead is taking care of this

4 teams if possible, each team gets a different color balloon.

The object of the game is to be the last team with your ballons still inflated.

Blow the balloon up to any size you want and tie it around your ankle with string.

On the start go after the other teams and try to pop their balloon without yours popping.

If yours is popped sit down on a couch and root for your team to win. Winning team gets a prize.

Prayer Groups

I want you guys to break into a group that has one person from each grade in it. That means you should have no more than 6 people in your group and chances are you will have less. Take another 3x5 index card and do the same thing from last week. The only difference is that these people in your group will be the same until the end of the month. If someone is missing from your group next week you need to call them and see what was going on. There will be some people that may be added to your group next week since we are missing some regulars tonight. PLEASE use this time for prayer and not goofing off or getting into fights with other members in your group. You have about 10 minutes. Once you are finished please just sit quietly and pray for the remainder of the evening. One request, pray for myself as tomorrow I have been asked to speak at Badin

High School for one of the religion classes on the Baptist Doctrines and the issues that separate us from Catholicism.
