

The Life of Moses: A Lesson on Leadership

The life of Moses can be separated into _____ different parts

- _____
- _____
- _____

Birth to Age 40

- Most likely the _____ of three siblings in his house when he was born
 - _____ was his brother.
 - _____ was his sister.
- Born during a time when _____ wanted the _____ to become less in population, so they would not _____.
- With this in mind his mother sent him up the Nile river in a _____.
- Moses was picked up by _____ and adopted him by here.

Childhood

- Because Moses was adopted by Pharaoh's daughter that meant he was taught:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- All these things Moses learned at a young age was a _____ of things God would do later on in his life

Adulthood

- Even though Moses was an _____ he did not forget that he was also an _____.
- Because of the _____ of the Israelites he killed an Egyptian and fled to _____, which is modern day Saudi Arabia.

Midian

- The Midianites were relative of _____. See Genesis 25
- These people taught the only thing that Moses didn't already probably know about; the God of Abraham.
- Moses lived in the place that he would eventual _____ with the Israelites in, and lead them to.