Wednesday February 4, 2004

We can see the heart of Paul and his ministry in the following passages:

- 1 Thessalonians 2.1-16

- Philippians 1

- Galatians 1.10-12

Lessons from Paul's Ministry

1. He always prayed for those he was ministering to.
2. He always had their best interest at heart at mind when he was with them.
3. Everywhere he went he shared his life with those who were with him.
4. The motives of Paul were always pure and honored God. He did nothing out of deceit.
5. Paul always had a team that ministered with him.

Lessons on Leadership

Leaders are not:

- deceptive

- people pleasers

- greedy

- self-serving

Leaders instead are:

- honest

- God pleasers

- sensitive to the needs of others

- authentic

- have affection for others

- enthusiastically affirms

John 13 shows us the epitome of leadership in the serving of others. But this can be taken into our personal life as well. The question is: Do we just want to be great, or have a great life/ministry?
