Colossians 1.15-20

The first thing you need to know in understanding these verses is this: Who does the "He" of vs. 15 refer to (hint look at preceding verses)? What does Paul tell us about that person? In one sentence what is the main point Paul is conveying?

How does this knowledge affect you today? Are you happy about what Christ is and has done for you? What is one thing you need to allow Christ to be supreme of this week?

Colossians 1.21-23

This passage concludes the introduction to the book of Colossians. What again is the main point Paul is saying? What is the promise that Paul tells the Colossians and us today that will happen if we remain true to the Gospel? Can you think of any other book of Paul's that these verses could remind us of?

Are you still alienated from God today, or have you been reconciled? If you are alienated you need to come to God and seek his forgiveness through Christ. If you are reconciled are you living like it? Pray now that God would help you look more like you should and obey His teachings.

Colossians 1.1-2

This serves as an introduction to the rest of the book but is very important to understand what goes on in these two verses. What is Paul communicating through this two short thoughts? Who is being called what? What do we learn about God in these verses? How will that spur you on to live differently this week/day?

Colossians 1.3-8

In one sentence what is Paul trying to convey to the Colossians? What are some of the characteristics they have that Paul is thanking them for? Would these same characteristics be said of you today? What is one area you need to work on because of this passage? What is one thing God has done for you that all people should thank Him for it? Go out today and let others know what God is doing.

Colossians 1.9-14

Paul is connecting this verses with the previous thoughts, what words clue you in to that? (See the first part of 9) In one sentence what is Paul praying for the Colossians to have/do? List some of those qualities. Who are you praying for? Write down two names of fellow Christians you can pray this prayer for today, then pray!
