The Holy Spirit

Is the Holy Spirit a Person?

In order to be a person (at the lowest and most basic level) there are three things that we all have in common:

1. Intellect:

2. Emotions/Feelings:

3. Will/Volition:

If the Holy Spirit has the characteristics of a person what does he look like or is he not a physical being? Explain the difference and know what implications this has for saying the Holy Spirit is personal if indeed Scripture teaches that.

How to Prove that the Holy Spirit is God/Deity

If you can prove that the Holy Spirit is Deity then you are on your way of proving the Trinity to be Biblical. The task here is to relate the Holy Spirit directly to events, attributes, characteristics that only God the Father has. In essence you must know the doctrine of God to some extent in order to prove the Holy Spirit or anything else is God.

Another way is to relate the Holy Spirit to either God the Father and God the Son.

Called God There are two passages in Scripture that directly relate and call the Holy Spirit God. I would suggest that you memorize them to be able to use when someone attacks this doctrine.

Creation

Incarnation

Redemption/Salvation

Now that we have reached this far how can you explain Deuteronomy 6:4-5 and with the fact that the Holy Spirit is also God therefore, in doing so God is now no longer one person but two. Also explain if there are “two Gods” why is idolatry a sin?
